

Burn Out Laut

Getting loud out of the burnout. Burn Out Laut!

Two of the musicians had a burnout and one is a psychologist. All have been in therapy several times. Alone with that they hit the nerve of the time.

After his burnout, Sean Warwick teamed up with the blind, exceptional guitarist Tom Plück. They composed German-language songs for over a year, which they now bring to the stage. Burn Out Laut recalls the early Westernhagen, Stoppok, Selig, AC / DC and Jimi Hendrix. The musicians play empathetic ballads to powerful, driving rock.

Instrumentation: Sean Warwick (vocals, organ), Tom Plück (guitar), Sascha Mandelkow (bass), Mirko Grusa (drums),
